Victoria Day is a sign that summer is just around the corner for some. The holiday is only celebrated in Canada and Scotland. It began as a celebration to honour Queen Victoria's birthday. Victoria Day was declared a Canadian holiday by the government in 1845. When Queen Victoria died in 1901, Canada's parliament officially named the holiday Victoria Day

~GK Chesterton

St. Eugene de Mazenod, founder of the Oblates gave the following advice to the Oblates: (regarding evangelization) “We must strive first of all to lead people to act like human beings, and then like Christians, and finally, we must help them to become saints.”

“To remain on the road to sanctity and to make progress, Christians should look upon themselves with the eyes of faith. No matter how poor or destitute they might be, in the eyes of faith all are “children of God” “brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ” and “heirs of His eternal Kingdom.””

In 2018 Pope Francis decreed that the ancient devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Mother of the Church, be inserted into the Roman Calendar. The liturgical celebration, B. Mariæ Virginis, Ecclesiæ Matris, will be celebrated annually as a Memorial on the day after Pentecost.

From the decree: "This celebration will help us to remember that growth in the Christian life must be anchored to the Mystery of the Cross, to the oblation of Christ in the Eucharistic Banquet and to the Mother of the Redeemer and Mother of the Redeemed, the Virgin who makes her offering to God."
